

Always in Fashion

International Condom Day 2017 Anthem

(a parody of Bruno Mars' "24K Magic")

Lyrics by Danny Fernandez

Today,
It's International Condom Day ,
Throw your worries all away,
When you do it the right way.

People!
Put yo rubbers proudly on display,
When you want to play.
Always in fashion, and always prepared,
Protected, with some flair!

It's time to go out, (Show out!),
Decked out (Show out!),
Lookin' all fine as hell,
But you don't know,
That where I go,
I always pack something else as well.
Wearing all the bling,
Designer things,
Anything that you please,
But they ain't no love if they ain't no glove-
It's the finest of accessories!

Oh snap, we sexy and free, and we can do what we wanna (wrap up!)
Any race, color or creed, you're single or a mama (wrap up)
Ain't no shame in your game, and no need for no drama, (wrap Up)

Safe Only!
Put yo rubbers proudly on display,
When you want to play.
Always in fashion, and always prepared,
Protected, with some flair!

Second verse goes out to Europe (Europe!), Asia (Asia!)
South America and Africa too,
Man even space, stay safe,
Go outta this world when you with your bae!
If, You double tap(tap), on that app (app),
Do you thang, get it in, just wrap (wrap).
We too hot!
Don't blame it on the moment
Hastag wrapped, you always ready for it.

Oh snap, we sexy and free, and we can do what we wanna (wrap up!)
Whether straight, gay, or trans, you're single or a mama (wrap up!)
Ain't no shame in your game, and no need for no drama (wrap up!)

Everywhere I go, condoms
Always in Fashion.
Everywhere I go, condoms
Always in Fashion.
Everywhere I go, condoms
Always in Fashion.

Put yo rubbers proudly on display,
When you want to play.
Always in fashion, and always prepared,
Protected, with some flair!

Put yo rubbers proudly on display,
When you want to play.
Always in fashion, and always prepared,
Protected, with some flair!
