

Rabbi To Conduct Funeral Services For Beryl Wallace

Funeral services for Beryl Wallace, star of Earl Carroll's revues and one of 43 persons, including Carroll, who were killed in a DC-6 plane crash in Pennsylvania, will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Malinow and Simons mortuary, 818 W. Venice blvd. Rabbin Abe Maron will officiate.

Meanwhile, the body of Carroll was positively identified at Mt. Carmel, Pa., by fingerprint experts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Miss Wallace, who lived at 6263 Leland way, is survived by her mother, Mrs. Fanny Wallace, two sisters and four brothers.